THIS MATTER is before the Court on the defendant's pro se motion to compel the government to file a Rule 35 sentence reduction motion, (Doc. No. 29), and the government's response and motion to seal, (Doc. No. 32).

The defendant asserts that the government must file a Rule 35 motion in recognition of his assistance to law enforcement within a year of his sentencing date. (Doc. No. 29: Motion at 2). The government correctly responds that Rule 35 does not require a motion within a one year period and that the prosecution of targets named in the defendant's motion is not complete. (Doc. No. 32: Response at 1). Additionally, the government requests that the Court place the motion under seal because it references the details of the defendant's cooperation. (Id.).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the defendant's motion, (Doc. No. 29), is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant's motion be placed under seal pending further order of the Court.
